CALL FOR PROPOSALS

THE FULBRIGHT CHAIR IN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT THE KELLOGG INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AT UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME (UND)

The Fulbright Chair in Democracy and Human Development at The Kellogg Institute for International Studies will give one award for a Brazilian scholar to spend one academic semester researching and occasionally, can be invited to join activities such as lectures and seminars for graduate students. The grant will be awarded for the fall term 2018 or spring term 2019, in accordance with Kellogg's Institute calendar.

This fellowship recognizes faculty members and researchers who have established a record of teaching and exhibit the potential to make significant contributions to the body of research on themes of democracy and/or human development, critical to contemporary societies around the globe. This program will strengthen cooperation between Brazilian institutions and Kellogg Institute that expects fresh perspectives and expertise on contemporary issues in Brazil, which has been a major focus of study at the Institute since the 1980s. The research produced through this cooperation should be appropriate for eventual policy application.

Applications must include a plan of activities on critical global challenges in a theme relating to democracy and/or human development. The visiting scholar will be affiliated with Kellogg Institute for International Studies. The Institute creates a space where those interested in international affairs can engage with one another and with issues crucial to human society. Known for its regional focus on Latin America, the Institute has in recent years widened its scope to include Africa, Asia and beyond.

1. ELIGIBILITY

The candidate must demonstrate outstanding academic qualification and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last five years in the Brazilian arena. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. The candidate must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned the doctoral degree before December 31st, 2012. Dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens are not eligible.

Note: The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation and depart to U.S. This grant cannot be cumulated with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Program will award funding for one visiting scholar for a four-month period, as follows:

- US$24,000 (twenty-four thousand U.S. dollars), for maintenance and international round-trip air ticket;
- Housing on or near the UND campus, as normally provided for international visiting fellows at the institution
- Limited health coverage through (ASPE – Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges);
- Visa J-1 fee; and
- Access to the facilities and services of Kellogg Institute, such as office space, laboratories, libraries and any other amenities regularly provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.
