CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED CHAIR AT EMORY UNIVERSITY

The Fulbright Distinguished Chair at Emory University (Emory) will give one award for a Brazilian scholar to spend one term researching, teaching one course, and occasionally joining activities such as lectures and seminars. The grant will be awarded for the fall term 2020 or the spring term 2021, in accordance with Emory's academic year calendar.

This program strengthens cooperation between Brazilian institutions and Emory across all schools and disciplines, including, but not limited to: humanities, natural sciences, social sciences, arts, law, biomedicine, public health, nursing, and business. The research produced through this cooperation will be incorporated into Emory's teaching programs and the visiting professor's home institution. The Chair will be located in appropriate departments and programs and affiliated with Emory's Halle Institute for Global Learning. Established in 1997 with a gift from Claus M. Halle, the Halle Institute supports Emory's strategic global priorities, strengthens faculty distinction, prepares engaged scholars, and facilitates the direct exchange of ideas. Its programs bring distinguished visitors from around the world into dialogue with Emory and the broader Atlanta community. Applications must include a Plan of Activities with a clear discussion of how Emory will aid the Chair in achieving fresh perspectives and expertise.

1. ELIGIBILITY

The candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. The candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned the doctoral degree before December 31st, 2011. Candidates that have benefited of J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st 2018 in order to be eligible to the Fulbright Program. Dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens and/or candidates hired on a temporary basis or as substitute professors are not eligible.

The candidate must demonstrate outstanding academic qualification and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years in the Brazilian arena. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation and depart to the U.S.; this grant cannot be cumulated with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Chair will award funding for one visiting scholar based on a four-month period, as follows:

- US$ 22,400 for maintenance, and international round-trip air ticket. The award will be paid by both institutions, Fulbright (US$ 16,200) and Emory (US$ 6,200). The income paid by the university is subject to tax, determined under tax accounting rules;
- Housing provided and arranged by Emory (one-bedroom apartment) or a U.S. $10,000 (ten thousand U.S. dollars) housing allowance. If the scholar opts for housing allowance, scholar will be responsible for arranging the housing;
- Limited health coverage through ASPE – Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1 fee; and
- Access to the facilities and services of Emory University, such as office space and internet connection; access to laboratories, libraries, and any other courtesies and amenities normally provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2020> indicating "Distinguished Chair at Emory University" in the Country Information, cycle 2020-2021, and including the following documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, if available, or photo ID. If the candidate has already received a J-1 visa, copy of the DS-2019 form and of the visa page from the passport;
- Resume (CV), no more than three pages;
- PhD certificate or diploma (can be in Portuguese);
- Pay Stub (contracheque);
- Research project statement with bibliography;
- Plan of activities including a clear discussion of how Emory University will aid the Distinguished Chair in achieving fresh perspectives and expertise.
- Proposed syllabus for a course that meets for 3 hours per week over the course of a semester for graduate or advanced undergraduate students.
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will review all applications and select the complete ones from eligible candidates. A peer review panel, nominated by the Fulbright Commission, will assess candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required.

The Fulbright Commission will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.. Priority will be given for groups already underrepresented in the program.

5. TIMELINE

- July 28th, 2019: deadline for online applications submission;
- October 2019: results of the selection process;
- Fall 2020 or spring 2021: activities at Emory.
