

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024

FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARD IN ARTS, HUMANITIES, AND SOCIAL SCIENCES AT YALE UNIVERSITY, NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

The Fulbright Distinguished Award in Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at YALE University, Connecticut, CT (YALE) will give one award for a Brazilian scholar to spend one academic semester lecturing and researching in the fall term 2023 (September to December 2023) or spring term 2024 (January to May 2024), following YALE academic year calendar.

The Award is intended to foster teaching and research in the area of arts, humanities, and social sciences. Candidates for the Award shall submit a detailed proposal for lecturing and/or research related to a field of study to be carried out during the fall 2023 semester or the spring 2024 semester. The ideal candidate has interdisciplinary research interests and course proposal that intersect with different departments at Yale.

Lecturing proposals should include a detailed syllabus for a three-hours weekly graduate seminar or advanced undergraduate course as conceived within one of the disciplines taught at YALE. Research proposals should include a detailed research plan, including timeline, expected resource needs, proposed research site or laboratory, and proposed YALE affiliation.

Please note that, with the COVID-19 outbreak, all Fulbright programs are contingent upon local restrictions, border controls, sanitary procedures, and availability of funds. Only and if those conditions are met, programs will be implemented.

1. ELIGIBILITY

The candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. The candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2014. Candidates that have benefited of J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2021, in order to be eligible for the Fulbright Program. Dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens and or candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors are not eligible and, also, scholars who have already received a Fulbright Chair Award cannot apply to another one.

Candidates must demonstrate outstanding academic qualifications and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years in the Brazilian arena. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S.; this grant cannot be cumulated with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Award funds one visiting scholar based on a four month stay at Yale University, as follows:

- US$ 30,000 for all expenses related to the stay in the U. S. (stipend, housing, settling-in allowance and international round-trip air ticket). The award will be paid by both institutions, YALE (US$ 15,000), subject to federal, state and local income taxes, and Fulbright (US$ 15,000);
- Limited health coverage through ASPE - Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1 fee; and
- Access to the facilities and services of YALE, such as office space and internet connection; access to collaborative research space, libraries and any other courtesies and amenities normally provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2023> indicating “Distinguished Scholar Awards at YALE University, New Haven, CT” in the Country Information, cycle 2023-2024, and including the following documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, pages, if available, or photo ID. If the candidate has already received a J-1 visa, copy of the DS-2019 form and the visa page from the passport;
- Resume (CV), no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Pay Stub (contracheque original document; translation not required);
- Syllabus and/or Research Project Statement with bibliography;
- Plan of Activities; and
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will screen and analyze, by peer review, all valid applications. A multi-disciplinary faculty review panel at Yale University will assess valid candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required. The Fulbright Commission and Emory University will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.

5. TIMELINE

- August 1st, 2022: deadline for online applications submission;
- December 2022: results of the selection process;
- Fall term 2023 or spring term 2024: activities at YALE.
