The Fulbright Commission in Brazil is pleased to announce you can now submit your application for the Fulbright Chairs in the U.S. These professorships target Brazilian faculty members and researchers who have an established record of teaching. They must also have the potential to make significant contributions to the body of research key to a wide range of disciplines, strengthening cooperation between Brazilians and the U.S. institutions through the Chairs as set forth below:

FULBRIGHT CHAIRS 2023-2024
Fulbright-Ruth Cardoso Chair at Georgetown University
Fulbright Chair in Interdisciplinary Studies: Agricultural Economics at Purdue University
Fulbright Chair in STEM at University of California, Davis
Fulbright Chair in Brazilian Studies at Emory University
Fulbright Chair in Public Health Sciences at University of California, San Diego
Fulbright Chair at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center
Fulbright Chair in Global Health University of New Jersey, Rutgers
Fulbright Chair in Materials Science & Nanoengineering at Rice University
Fulbright Chair in Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at YALE University

Fulbright together with the U.S. partner will award a one-semester grant in the fall term 2023 of the academic year to a faculty member from a higher education institution in Brazil. The grantee will receive a maintenance stipend and funds to cover airfare and housing for one academic term to support research and teaching activities.

An instruction package for each Chair is available at www.fulbright.org.br. Applications must be submitted in the online system until the respective deadline.

It is a unique opportunity to participate in the U.S. flagship educational exchange program and become a Fulbrighter for life.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024*FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARD AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
M.D. ANDERSON CANCER CENTER (MD ANDERSON)

The Fulbright Distinguished Award at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center (MD Anderson) will give one Award for a Brazilian scholar to spend one academic semester lecturing and researching in the fall term 2023 (September to December 2023) or spring term 2024 (January to May 2024), following MD Anderson academic year calendar. The Award aims to foster teaching, lecturing, and/or research in cancer research. The ideal candidate might have interdisciplinary research interests and course proposals. Candidates for the Award shall submit a detailed proposal for lecturing and/or research related to the priority fields below, during the fall 2023 semester or the spring 2024 semester:

- Population-based Research;
- Genome Biology and Medicine;
- Cancer Biology and Metastasis; and
- Immunology and Immunotherapy.

Lecturing proposals should include a detailed syllabus for a three-hour weekly graduate seminar as conceived within one of the research areas at MD Anderson. Research proposals consist of a detailed research plan, including timeline, expected resource needs, proposed research site, or laboratory.

Please note that, with the COVID-19 outbreak, all Fulbright programs are contingent upon local restrictions, border controls, sanitary procedures, and availability of funds. The Fulbright Commission will implement the Award only if those conditions are met.

1. ELIGIBILITY

The candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution or research institute. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. The candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2014. To be eligible for the Fulbright Program, candidates with prior J-1 visas must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2021. Dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens and or candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors are not eligible and, also, scholars who have already received a Fulbright Chair Award cannot apply to another one.

The candidate must demonstrate outstanding academic/research qualifications and a record of professional experience and intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years in the Brazilian arena. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S. This Award cannot be cumulated with any other similar award.

2. FUNDING

The Award funds one visiting scholar based on a one-semester stay at MD Anderson, as follows:

- US$ 32,400 for all expenses related to the stay in the U. S. (stipend, housing, settling-in allowance, and international round-trip air ticket). MD Anderson and Fulbright Commission will pay the award in equal shares;
- Limited health coverage through ASPE – Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1 fee; and
- Access to the facilities and services of MD Anderson, such as office space and internet connection; access to collaborative research space, libraries, and any other courtesies and amenities customarily provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2023> indicating "Distinguished Scholar Awards in the University of Texas Cancer Research at M.D. Anderson Cancer Center," in the Country Information, cycle 2023-2024, and including the following documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, pages, if available, or photo I.D. If the candidate has already received a J-1 visa, copy of the DS-2019 form and the visa page on the passport;
- Resume (C.V.), no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Pay Stub (contracheque original document; translation not needed);
- Syllabus and/or Research Project Statement with bibliography;
- Plan of Activities; and
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will review all applications and select the complete ones from eligible candidates. A peer review panel, nominated by the Fulbright Commission, will assess candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of proposals. An interview may be required.

The Fulbright Commission will submit the pre-selected candidate by MD Anderson to the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board for final approval. Candidates from groups underrepresented in the program with no significant previous academic experience in the U.S. will be preferred.

5. TIMELINE

- August 1st, 2022: deadline for online applications submission;
- December 2022: final results of the selection process;
- Fall term 2023 or spring term 2024: activities at MD Anderson.
