

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2025
PROGRAMS FOR BRAZILIAN CITIZEN
FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED CHAIR AT UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

The Fulbright Distinguished Chair at University of Pittsburgh (PITT) awards a Brazilian scholar the opportunity to spend one term researching, teaching one course, and joining activities such as lectures and seminars in the fields of Humanities, Social Sciences and Natural Sciences during the fall term 2024 or spring term 2025, following University of Pittsburgh's academic year calendar. The ideal candidate might have interdisciplinary research interests and course proposals. Candidates for the Award shall submit a detailed proposal for lecturing and research related to the priority fields of Indigenous, African, and Afro-Brazilian themes, during the fall 2024 semester or the spring 2025 semester.

The proposal should include a detailed syllabus for a three-hour weekly graduate seminar as conceived within one of the research areas at University of Pittsburgh. Also, a detailed research plan, including timeline, expected resource needs, proposed research site, or laboratory.

Please note that, with the COVID-19 outbreak, all Fulbright programs are contingent upon local restrictions, border controls, sanitary procedures, and availability of funds. Only and if those conditions are met, programs will be implemented.

1. ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. Candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2015. Candidates that have benefited of J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2022, to be eligible for the Fulbright Program. Former Fulbright Chair awardees, dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens, candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors are not eligible. Candidates must demonstrate outstanding academic qualifications and a record of professional experience, and intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S.; this grant cannot be combined with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Chair will award funding for one visiting scholar based on a four month stay, as follows:

- US$ 30,000 for maintenance, housing, and international round-trip air ticket. The award will be paid by both institutions, Fulbright (US$

15,000) and University of Pittsburgh (US$ 15,000). The income paid by PITT is subject to tax, determined under tax accounting rules;

- Limited health coverage through Fulbright's ASPE - Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1 and J-2; and
- Access to the facilities and services of University of Pittsburgh, such as office space, laboratories, libraries, and any other amenities regularly provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must carefully read the Application Instructions and submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2024> indicating “Distinguished Chair at University of Pittsburgh” in the Award Information, cycle 2024-2025, and including the following mandatory documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, pages, if available, or photo ID. If the candidate has already received a J-1 visa, copy of the DS-2019 form and the visa page from the passport;
- Resume (CV), no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Pay Stub (contracheque original document; translation not required);
- Research project statement with bibliography;
- Plan of activities including a clear discussion of how residence at University of Pittsburgh will aid the Distinguished Chair in achieving new perspectives and expertise.
- Proposed syllabus for a course that meets for 3 hours per week over the course of a semester for graduate or advanced undergraduate students.
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will screen and analyze, by peer review, all valid applications. A multi-disciplinary faculty review panel at University of Pittsburgh will assess valid candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required. The Fulbright Commission and University of Pittsburgh will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.

TIMELINE

- July 30th, 2023: deadline for online applications submission;
- December, 2023 results of the selection process;
- Fall 2024 or Spring 2025: activities at PITT.
