GENERAL INFORMATION

The application is supported by all modern browsers. We highly recommend using the current version of Google Chrome, which supports Windows, Mac, and Linux platforms.

Before starting an application, please complete the following steps:

STEP 1: Learn the application requirements.

Before you begin an application, read the Call for Proposals and the FAQ available at: <https://fulbright.org.br/edital/h-h-humphrey/>. You must make sure you are eligible to apply.

STEP 2: Record username and password in a safe place.

Your email address is your username. When creating an account for this online application, record your password in a secure location. You can log in and out of the application as frequently as you like using your username and password. If necessary, you can reset your password by clicking the “Forgot Your Password” link on the log-in page.

STEP 3: Complete the application.

You do not need to complete this application at one time. You can re-enter at any time to edit your application. However, once you SUBMIT your application, you CAN NOT make changes to it.

To complete your application correctly, please answer all questions thoroughly and carefully. Review these additional tips:

- Use upper and lower-case letters (e.g., John Smith). Avoid using all capital letters (e.g., JOHN SMITH). Do not use special characters, such as accent marks.
- You can copy and paste information into all text boxes.
- Limit your responses to the space provided in all text boxes.
- Prepare required documents and save them in PDF format. It is highly recommended to preserve any formatting and special characters in your records and upload them in PDF format.
- Some questions are “required.” They are marked with an asterisk (*). You will not be able to submit your application until all required items are complete.

STEP 4: Apply

Once you have entered all the necessary information, including recommenders, review your application for errors. If all information is correct, submit your application. Once you submit, you CAN NOT make changes to your application.

CREATING YOUR ONLINE ACCOUNT

- To start, click Create an account.
- Enter your email address, first name, and last name, and select your date of birth (Month-Date-Year) from the drop-down menus. Your name must be inserted precisely the way it appears (or will appear) on your passport.

Register

To register for an account, please enter the information requested below.

1. LEADERSHIP

Humphrey Fellows are leaders who make contributions in their fields that advance their communities and countries. Please describe how your work addresses the short and long-term needs of your country. Describe how the knowledge and skills you will gain through the Humphrey Fellowship will help you further address your country's needs. Be as specific as possible. Limit the response to 1200 characters.

Note: The Humphrey Program fosters a mutual exchange of knowledge and understanding about issues of common concern in the United States and Brazil.

2. GOALS AND PROGRAM PLAN

Humphrey Fellows are required to take initiative to build a program plan by choosing academic and professional experiences that will help them achieve their professional goals. Please describe your professional goals for the next five years, provide details about the academic and professional experiences that you would choose when designing your Humphrey Fellowship, and explain how these experiences will help you achieve your goals.

Limit the response to 2000 characters.

Note: At this point, we strongly recommend that you provide your preferences with as much information as possible. You should review each Humphrey Program component and each Humphrey Universities, which are listed below:

2.1 Humphrey Program components

- Academic Enrichment

Humphrey Host universities are chosen based on institutional resources and the level of support and guidance it offers to the participants. Each campus has a designated faculty coordinator for academic and administrative support. In addition, faculty advisors also assist Fellows in pursuing balanced academic and professional programs. Fellows are placed in groups of seven to fifteen at selected U.S. universities, which serve as their academic and professional bases. Fellows audit or register for a partial course load to travel and network with their American peers and experts in their field of work and attend conferences.

- Professional Affiliation,

The Humphrey Program requires that all Humphrey Fellows conduct a professional affiliation at a U.S. institution (in a business, non-profit, or government sector) for 30 working days.

- Professional Visits

Fellows are expected to participate in professional development activities relevant to their professional interests. These could include site visits to organizations, attendance at conferences and seminars, and meetings with U.S. experts and professionals.

- Community Service

Fellows are encouraged to think about how to give back by doing some community service in the area.

2.2. Humphrey Universities

Note: Remember that Fellows are placed at one of the participating USA universities.

Fellows are not able to choose which university they will attend. Rather, they are assigned in diverse groups of 7-15 to the most appropriate host institution based on their area of interest and professional field.

- American University, Washington College of Law: AUWCL is the only law school in the country hosting the program.
- Arizona State University: The Cronkite School is currently the only journalism school in the U.S. to host a Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship.
- Boston University: The Questrom School of Business serves as the Program's administrative home at BU.
- Cornell University: At Cornell University, Humphrey Fellows are professionals in the fields of agriculture, environmental and natural resource management, biotechnology, and city and regional planning.
- Emory University: Fellows at Emory University focused on epidemiology, health education, and public health policy and administration.
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology: The Special Program for Urban and Regional Studies (SPURS) is a one-year, non-degree program designed for mid-career professionals from developing and newly industrializing countries.
- Michigan State University: Humphrey Fellows at MSU have participated in a variety of areas of study and research, including business, economics, public policy, human resources, community sustainability, and law.
- Pennsylvania State University: The PennState College of Education hosts Humphrey Fellows in the field of education.
- Syracuse University: The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs is Syracuse University's home for innovative, interdisciplinary teaching and research in the social sciences, public policy, public administration, and international relations.
- University of California, Davis: UC Davis offers professional development for fellows in agricultural and rural development, natural resources management, and environmental science.
- University of Minnesota: The Humphrey School of Public Affairs at the University of Minnesota is home to Human Rights, Public Policy Analysis and Public Administration; and Urban and Regional Planning fields.
- Vanderbilt University: The Peabody College at Vanderbilt University hosts Humphrey Fellows in the field of education.
- Virginia Commonwealth University: The VCU Humphrey Fellowship Program, located in the Department of Psychology, focuses on a broad range of health problems with an emphasis on understanding the behavioral, psychological, social and cultural factors that affect people's health, and the use of behavior change interventions to promote positive health outcomes.

3. PUBLIC SERVICE

your proposal within your current conditions and plans for growth. References also provide evidence of your reputation within your Major Field of Study.

- You must submit two references. One of these must be from your Current Employer. Do not submit more than two references;
- Please provide your referees a copy of your Statements (A and B);
- References should be from people qualified to evaluate your professional work; the abilities you bring to the proposed project; your ability to adapt to another country and culture; and the merits of the project itself;
- References can come from your latest institution attended or from a colleague/ employer in your field outside your current job;
- If you have recently moved to a new job, one of the reference letters should be from your previous institution;
- Choose your referees carefully and contact them early. The letters of recommendation need to accompany the application as it could otherwise be weakened by an insufficient number of references.
- Do not ask someone for a letter of reference unless the person is well acquainted with your qualifications. A pro forma letter from a well-known scholar, a contact abroad or a prominent government official will carry less weight than a realistic assessment of your abilities from someone who knows you and your work well;

Once you register your recommenders, they will receive an automatic email with instructions on completing the online recommendation form. You can track the status of recommendations, send reminders, and add/delete recommenders through this system before and after submission of your application.

1. Click Add Recommender.
2. Complete all fields in the pop-up form:
3. Click Send to Recommender to generate automatic email to recommender.
4. Click Continue to save your responses and advance to the next section.
5. Once sent, you will have the option to Edit Recommender information if they have not yet started progress on their response and Save, Send Reminders, and Exclude if you wish to remove the recommender and replace with another individual.
