

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2026-2027
FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED CHAIR AT YALE UNIVERSITY

The Fulbright Distinguished Chair in Arts, Humanities, Sciences, and Social Sciences at YALE University, New Haven, CT (YALE) will give one award for a Brazilian scholar to spend one academic semester lecturing and researching in the fall term 2026 (September to December 2026), following the YALE academic year calendar.

The Award supports teaching and research in Latin American Studies. Ideal candidates engage with interdisciplinary themes that align with the academic programs in Yale College and/or the University's graduate and professional schools. Preference is given to those working in the Arts, Humanities, Sciences, or Social Sciences. Applicants must submit a detailed proposal for both teaching and research to be undertaken during the fall 2026 semester. Strong candidates will demonstrate interdisciplinary research interests and propose a course that complements the Latin American Studies program.

Lecturing proposals should include a detailed syllabus for a three-hours weekly graduate seminar or advanced undergraduate course as conceived within one of the disciplines taught at YALE. Research proposals should include a detailed research plan, including timeline, expected resource needs, proposed research site or laboratory, and proposed YALE affiliation.

1. ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. Candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2017. Candidates that have benefited of J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2024, to be eligible for the Fulbright Program.

Former Fulbright Chair awardees, dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens, candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors are not eligible. Candidates must demonstrate outstanding academic qualifications and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the following phases: selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S.; this grant cannot be combined with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Chair will award funding for one visiting scholar based on a four-month stay, as follows:

- US$ 30,000 for all expenses related to the stay in the U. S. (stipend, housing, settling-in allowance, and international round-trip air ticket). The award will be paid by both institutions, YALE (US$ 15,000) and Fulbright (US$ 15,000);
- Limited health coverage through Fulbright's ASPE - Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1; and
- Access to the facilities and services of the host institution, such as office space, laboratories, libraries, and any other amenities regularly provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must carefully read the Application Instructions and submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2026>, indicating “Distinguished Chair at YALE University” in the Award Information, cycle 2026-2027, and including the following mandatory documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, if available, or official ID document with photo (ex. CIN, RG or CNH);
- CV with no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Research project statement with bibliography;
- Course syllabus, with no more than ten pages;
- Plan of Activities;
- Paystub (contra cheque);
- Previous DS-2019 forms and visas on the passport, if the candidate has already received a J-1 visa;
- Letter of support from institution of affiliation: employer's declaration must indicate the date of admission and the present status of the contract (active and full-time); and
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will screen and analyze, by peer review, all valid applications. A multi-disciplinary faculty review panel at the Host University will assess valid candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required. The Fulbright Commission and the University will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.

Note: Plagiarism will result in disqualification from participating in the program.

5. TIMELINE

- August 3, 2025: deadline for online application submissions;
- December, 2025: results of the selection process;
- Fall term 2026: activities at the host institution.

6. INFORMATION

Grantees will be required to complete their Fulbright grant in the academic program specified in the grant document. Grant dates and funding amounts stated in the grant document are subject to change. Prospective Fulbright participants should be aware that public health conditions, availability of consular services and travel, as well as U.S. institutional operating status and policies may affect their ability to travel to the U.S. and participate in academic programs. The grant is activated only if the grantee can obtain a passport, J-1 visa and enter the United States to start the academic program outlined in the grant document.
