

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2027-2028
PROGRAMS FOR BRAZILIAN CITIZENS
FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED CHAIR HOSTED BY THE CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES
AT UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

The Fulbright Distinguished Chair at University of Pittsburgh (PITT) hosted by the Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) awards a Brazilian scholar the opportunity to spend one term researching, teaching one course, and joining activities such as lectures and seminars in the fields of Humanities and Social Sciences during the fall term of 2027 or spring term 2028, following University of Pittsburgh's academic year calendar. The ideal candidate might have interdisciplinary research interests and course proposals. Candidates for the Award shall submit a detailed proposal for lecturing and research during the fall 2027 semester or the spring 2028 semester.

The proposal should include a detailed syllabus for a three-hour weekly graduate seminar as conceived within one of the research areas at University of Pittsburgh. Also, a detailed research plan, including timeline, expected resource needs, proposed research site, or laboratory.

The 2027–2028 awardees will stand out as Fulbright Brazil's 70th cohort, a milestone in the bilateral academic exchange.

1. ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. Candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2018. Candidates who have benefited from a J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2025, to be eligible for the Fulbright Program. Former Fulbright Chair awardees, dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens, candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors, are not eligible. Candidates must demonstrate outstanding academic qualifications and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the following phases: selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S.; this grant cannot be combined with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Chair will award funding for one visiting scholar based on a four-month stay, as follows:

- US$ 30,000 for maintenance, housing, and international round-trip air ticket. The award will be paid by both institutions, Fulbright (US$ 15,000) and University of Pittsburgh (US$ 15,000). The income paid by PITT is subject to tax, determined under tax accounting rules;
- Limited health coverage through Fulbright's ASPE - Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1; and
- Access to the facilities and services of the host institution, such as office space, laboratories, libraries, and any other amenities regularly provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must carefully read the Application Instructions and submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2027>, indicating "Distinguished Chair at University of Pittsburgh" in the Award Information, cycle 2027-2028, and including the following mandatory documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, if available, or official ID document with photo (ex. CIN, RG or CNH);
- CV with no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Research project statement with bibliography;
- Course syllabus, with no more than ten pages;
- Plan of Activities;
- Paystub (contra cheque);
- Previous DS-2019 forms and visas on the passport, if the candidate has already received a J-1 visa;
- Letter of support from institution of affiliation: employer's declaration must indicate the date of admission and the present status of the contract (active and full-time); and
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will screen and analyze, by peer review, all valid applications. A multi-disciplinary faculty review panel at the Host University will assess valid candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required. The Fulbright Commission and the University will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.

Note: Plagiarism will result in disqualification from participating in the program.

5. TIMELINE

- August 2, 2026: deadline for online application submissions;
- December, 2026: results of the selection process;
- Fall 2027 or Spring 2028: activities at the host institution.

6. INFORMATION

Grantees will be required to complete their Fulbright grant in the academic program specified in the grant document. Grant dates and funding amounts stated in the grant document are subject to change. Prospective Fulbright participants should be aware that public health conditions, availability of consular services and travel, as well as U.S. institutional operating status and policies may affect their ability to travel to the U.S. and participate in academic programs. The grant is activated only if the grantee can obtain a passport, J-1 visa and enter the United States to start the academic program outlined in the grant document.

Additional information about the "Fulbright Distinguished Chair at University of Pittsburgh" at www.fulbright.org.br

Contact: Camila Menezes camila@fulbright.org.br